

Cultural Growth

Building Arts & Entertainment in Atlanta

Atlanta is quickly becoming the arts, entertainment and cultural capital of the Southeast. The construction of museums, performing arts centers, entertainment venues and associated mixed use developments has never been more active. More projects continue to appear on the horizon!

This session will take a look inside The Georgia Aquarium, Cobb Energy Performing Arts Centre, High Museum of Arts, Woodruff Arts Center and other notable projects that relate to the Arts & Entertainment in Atlanta. What is driving this development and what does it mean for Atlanta and your firm? What are the most successful cultural projects thus far, and what projects do we see coming down the pipeline?

Join SMPS, ACEC, DBIA, NAWIC, CMAA and our distinguished panelists for an engaging and timely discussion that will address these questions.

- Atlanta Arts & Culture Coalition, Bill Nigut , CEO
- Georgia Aquarium, David Kimmel, Program Manager, Heery International
- Cobb Energy Performing Arts Centre, Wendy Riggs, Managing Director
- Woodruff Arts Center, Steve Merz, EVP for Strategic Planning
